GIVING AND SHARING

2026 PER CAPITA ASSESSMENT

Per capita assessment is the amount per member (NOT household) that Geneva must pay towards Presbytery infrastructure, Synod expenses,

General Assembly meetings/ leadership training and legal support. To help offset this cost you may donate your personal share of $48.11. Donate online (via dropdown menu) or by check ("Per Capita" in memo line).

PROJECT LOVE

Sundays, 3:30pm

If you would like to get involved with this missional effort to provide meals for homeless and needy in our local communities, you can contribute time, food, and/or dollars. Please contact Ryan Harvey at info@genevapres.org.

EYEGASSES DONATIONS

Donate used glasses—including sunglasses and reading glasses—using the Lion's Club Recycle for Sight collection box in the church office. Help provide usable eyeglasses to people throughout the world!

BOOK DONATIONS

Do you have books that you no longer need? The Library Cart is in need of donations! The books do not have to be religious; fiction is especially popular. Bring your donations to the church office, and don't forget to look for the cart on the courtyard on Sundays for your next read!

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

FRONT DESK RECEPTION

A friendly and welcoming smile, an ability to direct people to the right place, a willingness to assist as needed in the office—put your people skills to work as a front desk volunteer. We have shifts to fill, or serve as substitute. Laura: info@genevapres.org.

A WELCOMING SPACE

If you have 2-3 hours every other month or so, help us organize and maintain materials in our pews, so that visitors and members can participate in worship and community. Contact Joanna Capelle: info@genevapres.org.
